Thirty-minute hunt becomes three sweaty hours

By Ed Chamberlain

When some local kids got together the other night and spent a couple of hours gathering material for this week's edition of the Chamber News, they ran into a bit of trouble. The kids, who are members of the local chamber of commerce, were trying to gather information about the size of the local chamber of commerce. However, they encountered several obstacles along the way.

The first obstacle was that the chamber of commerce was not able to provide the information they needed. The kids were told that the chamber of commerce had no idea how many members they had, and that they had no way of tracking membership. The kids were disappointed, but they persevered.

The second obstacle was that the chamber of commerce was not able to provide the information they needed. The kids were told that the chamber of commerce had no idea how many members they had, and that they had no way of tracking membership. The kids were disappointed, but they persevered.

The third obstacle was that the chamber of commerce was not able to provide the information they needed. The kids were told that the chamber of commerce had no idea how many members they had, and that they had no way of tracking membership. The kids were disappointed, but they persevered.

In the end, the kids were able to gather a bit of information about the local chamber of commerce, but they were not able to gather all the information they wanted. The kids were disappointed, but they were happy to have learned something about the local chamber of commerce.

WHY?

Sen. Ed Howard?

Since you have refused to debate Jim Chapman in an open public forum, we hope you will tell the people of Senate District 1 why you voted the way you did on some of the major issues in the State Senate race.

1. WHY did you vote to reduce the penalties for corrupt public officials who steal from the taxpayers? (SB261, 2005)
2. WHY did you vote twice on the Senate Commission against Marine Subsidy votes for the agency and the Late Start Relief? (Senate Committee on Ways & Means, 2005-2006)
3. WHY did you repeatedly and support a state water plan that could only help Brites and not the people here in East Texas? (SB1361, 1991)
4. WHY did you vote to trim the amount a criminal can steal before it becomes a felony? (SB622, 1989)
5. WHY did you refuse to help Rep. Pete Paterson, from Paris, with his fight to help our public workers in agriculture? (HB3591, 2005)
6. WHY did the utility companies and their lobbyists contribute thousands of dollars to your campaign in 1987-88 in that, why did 30% of your total campaign dollars come from outside the district? (FTE #10-02300, Tex. Secretary of State Of- fice)
7. WHY did you vote to reduce the penalties for the career criminal? (HB1014, 1987)
8. WHY did you vote against making it easier for the people who live in nursing homes? (SB1414, 1987)
9. WHY did you vote against providing at least $550,000 to run your senate office for two years, and let it go at $600,000? (A. M. Allen only got $130,000 for his office, for a larger length of time). The Senate obviously doesn't understand that kind of a difference. (State audits)

These are all issues that are important to the people of Northeast Texas and we hope that you have adequate explanations for your actions. Because of them, we're supporting Jim Chapman for the Texas Senate. He's the least Democrat in this race and we believe that he'll represent us in the Texas Senate.

Jim Chapman will take the "WHY?" out of the voting record.

Weaver to lead bike-a-thon

Philley Weaver has begun working in Beckles for St. John Chrysostom Parish. Mr. Weaver is the new principal of the parish's early childhood education center. The center has been renamed the Weaver Early Learning Program in his honor. Mr. Weaver has been a dedicated teacher and leader in the community for many years. His passion for education and his commitment to children have made him a beloved figure in the community. The new center is expected to open in the fall, providing high-quality early education opportunities for children in the area. Mr. Weaver will lead the bike-a-thon fundraiser to support the center's mission.

Carthage High School represented well

JOURNALISM, YEARBOOK CLASSES EARN HONORS

The 1994 edition of the Carthage High School yearbook, "Bull Dog," has been selected as one of the best in the nation by the National Scholastic Press Association (NSPA). The yearbook was chosen from a competitive field of nearly 1,000 yearbooks submitted from high schools around the country. The selection process is based on several criteria, including content, design, and overall quality. The yearbook includes features on sports, news, and student life, and was created by the journalism and yearbook classes under the guidance of instructor Dick Hill. This is the third year that the Carthage High School yearbook has been recognized by the NSPA. The school's journalism and yearbook classes are to be congratulated on their exceptional work.
Local students win top awards recently

Students awarded in Cartagena form the nucleus of a new chapter at the Art Club. The Cartagena chapter was recently chartered at the VHS Building on the campus of Vicksburg Community College.

The students were presented their awards at the annual meeting of the National Association of Women in Business. The chapter was awarded the highest distinction in the state of Mississippi.

County Shriners raise $3,918 locally

Fifty members of the Vicksburg Elks Lodge, under the direction of Robert Scott, recently raised $3,918 for the Shriners Children's Hospital in Memphis, Tenn. The Shriners Children's Hospital is a private, non-profit hospital that serves children with orthopedic conditions, burns, and spinal cord injuries. The hospital is also a research center.
