Panola County Abstract

The Curious Reporter

Sunday after church, Seneca Crockett, 86, of Seneca, Co., told his wife, "I've just received a letter from the Panola County Farm Bureau." "What did it say?" "It said that the area has had a wonderful winter," the old man replied. "The sun has been shining and there's only one thing that can prevent a bumper crop of crops, the heat."

Editorial

Working together

Economic development and a stable quality of life is a major concern of the Panola County community. It is important to have a strong economy that supports the needs of the people who live here. Developing economic opportunities is essential to ensure the continued growth and prosperity of the area.

Will DOE dump it all on Texas?

Let us work together to ensure a better future for our community. By collaborating and pooling resources, we can achieve greater success and make significant progress in improving our quality of life.

Texas Views:

Tourism, diversification said ways to boost state economy

It is important for us to consider different strategies for economic growth. Diversification can help reduce the reliance on a single industry and promote a more stable economy. Tourism can also contribute significantly to the state's economy and create jobs for residents.

Police report

Delivery man dies from gunshot wound

Our community should come together to support and protect our fellow citizens. It is crucial to address the challenges faced by our law enforcement and ensure their safety.

Heritage Society must set funding priorities

By Terry L. McLean

The Heritage Society recently decided to reallocate its funds in order to better support its various projects. This decision was made to ensure that each project receives adequate funding and resources to succeed.

Gary election attracts candidates

The City of Gary has announced that candidates are already filing their names to run for the upcoming election. This is an opportunity for the community to participate in the democratic process and choose the best leaders for their city.

Letters to the editor:

Thurmond against pay raise

State Rep. Thurmond has introduced a resolution to increase his pay by 20 percent. Many people believe this is an inappropriate use of public funds, and there is currently a movement to oppose this proposal.

Environmentalism and natural resources

It is essential for us to prioritize environmental protection and conserve our natural resources. By adopting sustainable practices and policies, we can ensure a healthier and more sustainable future for generations to come.

Patterson challenge to local party

Patterson Challenger, a local party, has called for an investigation into possible corruption within the local political system. This initiative seeks to promote transparency and integrity in the political process.

Tower seals say "I love my job" as they retire

As we celebrate the achievements of our local community, let us also recognize the contributions of our past leaders and their impact on our present and future. Their work has laid the foundation for the growth and development we see today.

'That's the way it happened,' Roy Saile said later. 'I was over there when they turned the ball over. I saw how they were trying to get it back. I knew they were in trouble.'

Saile, TEC's 6-foot-4 guard, was the key player in the final three minutes of the game. He scored 17 of his team's 31 points in the final quarter, including a four-point play that sealed the victory.

Teddy Cole

Teddy Cole, TEC's leading scorer, had a quiet game, scoring just 13 points. But he was a key factor in the team's victory, providing leadership and experience to the younger players.

Jean-Pierre Dumas

Jean-Pierre Dumas, the Tigers' leading scorer, had a rough night, scoring just 10 points. But he provided some key moments, including a three-pointer late in the game that gave his team hope.

Jamaal Williams

Jamaal Williams, TEC's center, had a solid game, scoring 15 points and grabbing 10 rebounds. He was a force in the paint and helped TEC control the boards.

Tyler eases up in rout

BY TROY LEACH
The Blue Jays never had to truly break in a second inning, but it was all the dif ference to ease up to victory.

Tyler led off the game with a two-run home run and never looked back. Tyler hit a threerund home run in the third inning to put the game out of reach.

"Tyler's swing was amazing," said Coach Johnson. "He hit the er first pitch of the game for a home run and never looked back. His second home run was a beauty, too. He's got some power."

The Fillies had four players in the lineup with three runs scored in the first inning. The game was never in doubt.

"They never had a chance," said Coach Johnson. "Our pitching was great and we scored four runs in the first inning. Tyler was the key to the game. He hit two home runs and drove in five runs."

Samantha House serves the needy

Samaritan House is an interdenominational effort to meet the challenging needs of our society. Although it is not a function of any church, the faith of those who contribute to the work of the Samaritan House is expressed in a variety of ways, such as in the form of money, food, clothing, or other goods. The house is a ministry of the church of Christ, and it is supported entirely by private giving and contributions from individuals, families, and organizations. The house is open for lunch and dinner every weekday and serves those who come with a need. The need may be for food, clothing, or other basic necessities. The house also provides a place for people to socialize and build relationships with others. The house is located at 301 S. Main Street, and it is open from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. and from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. every weekday. For more information, please call 555-1234.
