

PANOLA COLLEGE JOB DESCRIPTION

JOB TITLE:	Professor of Education	FLSA status:	Exempt
-------------------	------------------------	---------------------	--------

DEPARTMENT:	Instruction	REPORTS TO:	Dean of Professional & Technical Programs
--------------------	-------------	--------------------	---

Position summary: No job description can specify every professional responsibility of the faculty member. When an individual accepts a full-time teaching assignment, he or she assumes the responsibility of meeting the needs of students and of actively assisting the College as it strives to fulfill its goals and objectives. These responsibilities may therefore require the faculty member to undertake professional duties not specifically mentioned in the job description. The faculty member is generally responsible for the overall duties associated with instructing students. The faculty member shall be directly responsible to the appropriate dean for the following duties and responsibilities.

Position responsibilities:

- Provide quality instruction aimed at achieving the specific goals and objectives stated in the syllabi of the assigned courses.
- Oversee on-site field experiences for students in Associate of Arts in Teaching program and Early Childhood Professions Certificate program.
- Create a wholesome, meaningful environment for learning in the classroom.
- Use official Panola College syllabus.
- Advise students on their progress.
- Aid in planning instructional programs and policies.
- Assist in developing schedule of classes for all terms.
- Be on time for class and promptly notify the appropriate administrator in case of absence.
- Post and maintain at least eight office hours per week, according to policy.
- Provide lesson plans, class record book, and keys for substitute instructor.
- Maintain electronic grade book, which records student attendance, grades, and averages, and submit to appropriate Dean when course ends.
- Submit all student grade reports to Student Services according to schedule.
- Report student problems to the appropriate Dean.
- Assist with student registration when required.
- Provide advising to students, establishing a positive student-teacher relationship.
- Develop and proctor relevant course examinations.
- Request necessary textbooks, lab manuals, and instructional materials in a timely manner.
- Attend all faculty meetings, commencements, and special events.
- Provide reports and studies as assigned.
- Develop and manage department budget.
- Sponsor a student organization if assigned.
- Serve on committees as assigned.
- Supply documentation on the manner in which grades are determined upon request from administration.
- Participate fully in professional development activities.
- Assist with faculty training if needed.
- Assist Continuing Education department in developing training for child-care providers and other educators.
- Clear accounts with the library at the end of each semester or sooner.
- Participate in student recruitment activities, including early admissions students at local high schools.
- Maintain effective working relationships with area public school district representatives.
- Comply with terms of articulation agreements with colleges/universities.
- Work with college/university personnel to facilitate transition to baccalaureate teacher education programs.
- Familiarize self with school policies.
- Serve as a good public relations agent in the classroom and in the community.
- Remain loyal to the College and its purpose.
- Perform all other duties as assigned.

Minimum Position Requirements:

- Master's degree with at least eighteen graduate hours in the discipline; at least eighteen graduate hours in early childhood education preferred. Teaching experience in Texas public schools and at the college level in the online environment preferred.
- Faculty are required to work as needed, which includes teaching on- and off-campus sites for both day and evening classes.

- Faculty with contracts longer than a nine month period may be required to teach summer classes.

Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities Required:

- Must have a commitment to the philosophy of the college.
- Thorough knowledge of discipline with the ability to encourage students to use critical thinking and problem solving skills.
- Knowledge of learning theory-motivational, perceptual, and emotional forces present in the learning process and the conditions which affect individual learning and change.
- Knowledge of theories of leadership-alternative techniques and styles for guiding, motivating, and directing individuals under various situational conditions to achieve effective performance.
- Knowledge of current development in related fields of specialization with the ability to keep current with new developments.
- Skills and ability to use current technology, including instructional software
- Ability to contribute and present innovative ideas for new curricula and programs that combine traditional schedules with new demands from industry schedules.
- Ability to demonstrate consideration of others.
- Ability to manage time to evaluate each student's progress.
- Ability to deal effectively and fairly with a variety of individuals in a courteous manner.
- Ability to speak, read and write the English language effectively.
- Ability to clearly and effectively present ideas in discussion and oral presentations.
- Ability to meet deadlines for reports and other required paper work.
- Ability to present a positive and professional image when representing the college.
- Ability to safeguard confidential information from intentional or unintentional disclosure.
- Ability to perform all the essential functions of this job.

Physical Demands and Work Environment:

- Work is normally performed in a typical interior/office work environment.
- No or very limited physical effort required; however, the employee must occasionally lift and/or move up to 50 pounds.
- No or very limited exposure to physical risk.
- Some travel required.