

Brian Naples
Curriculum Vitae

Name: Brian Naples

Work Address: 1109 W. Panola St. Carthage, TX 75633

Office Telephone Number: 903-693-2043

College Email Address: bnaples@panola.edu

Education

- M.A. Politics, University of Dallas, Dallas, Texas, 2007
- B.A. History, Franciscan University, Steubenville, Ohio, 2003

Teaching Experience

- Panola College, Carthage, Texas (2009 – Present)
  - Department Chair of the Liberal Arts
  - Instructor of Government
- North Lake Community College, Irving, Texas (2007 – 2009)
  - Adjunct Instructor of Government

Professional, Technical, and Work-related Experience and Skills

- Instructor for face-to-face, online, and internet television courses.
- Course instruction for Introduction to Political Science, Federal Government, and Texas Government
- Student academic advisor
- Served on the Panola College Foundation Scholarship Committee, the core curriculum committee, employment committees, and academic appeals committees.
- Established annual 5k Run for the Panola College Foundation Endowment.
- Established Annual Panola College Academic Conference.
- Established curriculum and institutional effectiveness goals for the government department.

- Faculty sponsor for the Student Government Association, the Panola College Swing Dance Club, the Panola Green Jackets, and the Catholic Student Organization.

Professional Achievements and Publications

- Jun. 2014 Delegate to the Texas Republican State Convention
- Sep. 2013 Lunch Box Lecture - "Scale: Understanding America's Debt"
- Oct. 2012 Lunch Box Lecture - "Interview with a Holocaust Survivor"
- Oct. 2012 Lunch Box Lecture - "The Voting Responsibility"
- Jun. 2012 Delegate to the Texas Republican State Convention
- May. 2012 Guest speaker for the Panola County Conservatives: "Modern Progressivism"
- Apr. 2012 Co-authored article "Student Faculty Support key to Successful Fundraising"
- Mar. 2012 Moderated 2012 Republican Primary Debate for the Ninth Legislative District of Texas
- Sep. 2011 Constitution Day Speaker at Panola College - "Little Known Facts on the Constitution"
- Sep. 2010 Constitution Day Speaker at Panola College: "Of Limited Government"